LIMESTONE COUNTY BOY GOES TO UNITED STATES SENATE

FORMER CITIZEN OF KOSSE IS NEW MEXICO SENATOR

Limestone County can now claim to be the birthplace of a United States Senator.

In the New Mexico election Sam G. Bratton, democratic nominee, was elected.

Judge Bratton is now a member of the supreme court in that state having been elevated to that position recently from the district bench.

He is the son of the late Calvin G. Bratton, who formerly resided in Kosse, in this county, where Senator Bratton was born.

He went West in his early life with his father, attended the public schools of Hereford, was admitted to the bar, practiced law for a few years in Texas and then moved to New Mexico.

In New Mexico he was signally honored by election and promotion to the highest honor in that neighboring state.

Senator Bratton is only about 35 years of age, but is regarded as one of the ablest jurists in New Mexico.

He has other relations in this part of Texas being a cousin of B. C. and Frank Bratton and Mrs. G. A. Pringle of Marlin.

He is also remembered by some of the old timers in this county who feel proud of his success and the signal honor that he has achieved.

LIME IS TO BE AVAILABLE IN THIS COUNTY SOON

By J. W. STUBENRAUCH.

At last we are assured by the gentleman who operates the rock crusher on the Stroud farm on the Navasota river that there will soon be plenty of the best of fine ground lime for use in our fields.

This is something to be thankful for. Using lime is the first step towards recovering some of the fertility of our farms, lost during twenty years in growing crops and wasting humus.

We can all remember the fine crops that were produced in the earlier days. That was because then our land was full of organic matter (humus). By means of lime we are enabled to restore again quite a good part of this lost humus as well as to grow in the meantime better crops of feed and so forth. Legumes, such as Sweet Clover, Alfalfa, Soy Beans, Cowpeas, grow well and yield heavy where lime is freely used and it just takes such crops to put once more life into a good many of our present day farms.

All of our land will be helped by a crop rotation, in other words, by growing more feed stuff instead of cotton year after year. While all of our wide awake farmers realize this, there are, however, a good many that have to be shown. And right here is where a live and efficient county agent, with at least one good assistant for our county, is in demand.

We have some good men among us who can fill the bill all right. If a graduate from A. & M. College has to be chosen let our Hon. Commissioners Court see to it that the applicant understands the value of better seeds, how to terrace and save land from washing; that he understands the value and use of lime, how best to use it.

The right sort of man cannot help but be a big help to most of us farmers. There is not one of us that knows a thing before we learn it and lots of us got a good deal yet to learn.

Although cotton is a short crop again this season, yet if all of our farmers had all the feed they need for their stock, Texas would be one of the most prosperous states in the union.

As matters stand, I cannot see much chance of improvements in general farming, unless we do get the assistance and advice of an intelligent, well posted helper

METHODISTS TO WIND UP YEAR IN THE CITY SUNDAY

The services Sunday wind up the Conference year for the First Methodist church of this city and for all churches and congregations in the Central Texas Methodist Conference.

The entire membership is urged to be present at all services to make this the banner day of the year, and a fitting close to two years' of successful work by the pastor, Rev. W. B. Andrews.

In the two years that he has served this congregation this time, more than 300 members have been added to the church rolls and the First Methodist church of Mexia is now recognized as one of the leading churches in Texas Methodism. Rev. Andrews is known as one of the leading ministers of the church, as well as one of the ablest of pulpit speakers in Southern Methodism. His sermons are full of spiritual food which satisfies the longings of the heart.

Those who would send him to conference this year with all reports in full are urged to pay all assessments, if they have not already done so. Rev. Andrews will leave Monday for Brownwood for the Annual Conference.

The church has conducted a big program during the year, raising more than $30,000 for the work of the church and for the expansion and improvement plans of the congregation.

The usual church services will be observed during the day; Sunday School at 9:15, preaching services at 11 a. m. and 7:30 P. M. and the Intermediate and Junior Leagues in the afternoon at 3:00 and 4:00 o'clock.

The Woman's Missionary Society observed Monday as the week of prayer, serving luncheon at the church and electing new officers for the Conference year. Mrs. A. H. Berry, the splendid President, was re-elected.

On Thursday, the ladies also served the Mexia Rotary club with its weekly luncheon in the new basement of the church, which was recently improved and made ready for service.

A. H. Berry, Chairman of the Committee to seat the basement, announces that the seats have been ordered and should be here for installation in a short while.

Envoy and Mrs. M. L. Hamilton have worked hard since they came to Mexia and have rendered invaluable service which is appreciated deeply. They have handled thousands of cases in the past year.

The Salvation Army has attended to practically all charity cases in the city, not confining their service to street meetings by any means. BAPTISTS EXPECT GREAT RESULTS AT SERVICES SUNDAY

After three weeks of most successful revivalistic services, in which the First Baptist church has seen its membership increase by more than 200 and in which hundreds have been revived spiritually, today is to mark another great day in the life of the local First Baptist congregation.

The first two weeks of the meeting was conducted by the pastor, Rev. Joe Jeffers, assisted by Paul B. Harper, as choir director and leader in song service.

During the past week, Rev. V. B. Starnes, noted Baptist evangelist of Waco, has assisted. The tent has been filled nightly with the big throngs that have attended the meeting. Many visitors have come from distant points and from various congregations and churches throughout this part of Texas.

Every service finds many visitors present, drawn by the power of the evangelistic campaign and the fine reports of the excellent service being rendered.

Last Sunday two well attended and very helpful mass meetings were held. One was at the Baptist church for the ladies, conducted by Mrs. Joe Jeffers. One of the features of the fine occasion was an address by Mrs. Victor K. Aubrey, pronounced to be of the very highest rank. The other was at the big tent, at which time Evangelist Starnes delivered an able address.

The young people of the church have been very active during the revival, contributing beautifully to the service in song at each meeting.

The First Baptist Church in Mexia has set out to bring all local Baptists into the church, if possible, and in the shortest length of time. There are hundreds of men, women and children in the city, yet unaffiliated with the congregation and the church extends a cordial invitation to all of them to line up with the active army of Baptists and Christian people in this community, working for the advancement of the cause. The fact that such a large number had not yet joined was discovered in a recent census taken prior to the beginning of the revival. The results of the past three weeks indicates that much progress has been made along the lines of the program laid out.

The work of the First Baptist church during the past year has been spectacular and has attracted statewide interest.

At the big tent tonight, Evangelist Starnes will reenact the crucifixion at the services which start at 7:00 o'clock. It is said that no other preacher in the country presents this story as does Rev. Starnes and that twenty five per cent of his conversions in meetings have come as a result of this message. Protestants and Catholics, saint and sinner, are all invited. The announcement is also made that the tent will be comfortable.

Warren Dale, attorney with the Boyd Oil Company, of Dallas, was a Mexia visitor Saturday.

EVENT NOTABLE AND UNIQUE IN MEXIA HISTORY

Saturday was the biggest day of the year in the business district of Mexia. It was the occasion of observing the Mexia Trades Day Show, a unique affair suggested by the Retail Merchants Association and put over by that organization, the Mexia Chamber of Commerce and all other civic clubs working in unison.

The program began about 10:00 o'clock in the morning, when L. S. Patterson, Master of Ceremonies, who gave the entire day to put the program across in splendid fashion, introduced A. Garland Adair to deliver the address of welcome. The response was made by H. W. Tolson whom Mr. Patterson introduced as one of the leading citizens of the rural communities and of this part of Texas. Mr. Tolson grew somewhat reminiscent, recalling the progress of Mexia from its village days up to the present and bubbling over with praise and loyalty for the home community with every utterance.

Mr. Patterson of the program committee has worked tirelessly for the success of the first event of its kind in the history of Texas municipalities. Never has such a trades show been given and he and John McElroy, President of the Retail Credit Association, Jere Cason, Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, Hardy Eubanks, President of the Chamber of Commerce, and all other citizens who had contributed to the day and given many hours freely to the cause, wore a smile as broad as their hospitable welcome when they saw the thousands gathered around the stand at the corner of Commerce and Sherman for the event of the day.

The Westminster College band from Metchuana furnished the music for the day without charge, their renditions being most pleasing to all and deeply appreciated by the business men of the city. They won many friends here by their day of service.

Manager "Pat" Box of the local picture houses and the Opera House threw open the doors to the public all during the morning and throughout those hours they were crowded, many of the spectators seeing a show for the first time in years, which they greatly appreciated.

Many of the restaurants of the city served meals at the noon hour to the visitors for 25 cents.

By 12:30 the streets of the business district were roped off and the crowds increased around the stands and waited patiently throughout the awarding the prizes.

L. S. Patterson continued his services during this work, assisted by Jere Cason, T. B. Haines, John Corley, Jr. and others.

The awarding of the prizes for the three prettiest girls present from out of town points was the first award. The prizes going to Miss Bernice Lee Garrison of Tehuacana, Miss Ella Teer of Cotton Gin and Miss Joe Lindsey of Cotton gin. These received first, second and third prizes in the order named. The prizes were a $20 hat by Mrs. C. O. Anderson, $10 cash and $5 cash.

The oldest settler present, living in Limestone County, proved to be Captain Hampton Steele of Thornton who was awarded the $10.

The oldest married couple prize of $15 given by Jack Womack went to Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bozeman who had been married more than 59 years.

The prize for the youngest married couple present was awarded to Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Lewis of near Coolidge who have been married only a little over 53 years. Prize $15 in cash, by Jack Womack.

These two couples were the only contestants in these events.

R. S. Smith and family won the prize of $25 in groceries from Tidwell's for having come the longest distance. They travelled 80 miles from Robertson county.

R. E. Bozeman and family received the $25 in groceries from Tidwell's as being the largest family. He and his wife and 10 children were present.

Extended reports of the day will be given in early issues of The News.

BLACK CATS WIN HARD FOUGHT GAME AT GROESBECK

STRONG TEAM AT COUNTY SEAT HOLDS GAME 13 TO 7

The fighting Black Cats under Coach Poter added another win to their string of victories when they defeated the strong Groesbeck team 13 to 7, at the county seat Friday afternoon. The Groesbeck aggregation surprised the Cats with a terrible score when they scored a touchdown in the first quarter, the Cats came back fighting in the later stages of the game and held them when they liked but were unable to run up a large score.

The two Cats to make touchdowns were Wayne Lucas and Wayne Thompson, Captain of the Cats. The Cats tied the score in the second quarter on a series of line plunges and end runs and Thompson smashed the center of the line for three yards and touchdown after it had been advanced that far by Buford, Perkins, Kerner and Clover. In the third quarter Wayne Lucas went around right end for 40 yards and a touchdown shaking off several would-be tacklers and was thrown by the safety man and the ball was about a foot beyond the line.

There is one thing that was in the game and it left a little room for the supposition that the Cats had not taken the Groesbeck game with much seriousness, they fumbled frequently and their interference was poor. In fact they had very little interference at times. But with all due respect to Coach Poter and his Fighting Black Cats we will say that they showed their superior football knowledge over their opponents. Not only was it shown in the knowledge of football but in a manner of sportsman ship. There were two men on the Groesbeck squad who were a little too anxious to "cut" a man that they resorted to using their fists. But on several occasions the Cats would take their medicine like sports.

But let's get down to some of the statistics of the game. The Cats showed their superiority in making 13 first downs to the seven of the Groesbeck aggregation. They passed three times, completing one, having one intercepted and one was grounded; while the Goats passed 9 times, completing two, having one intercepted and six grounded. Kerner punted four times for an average of 32 yards. Two of his kicks were carried out of bounds by the strong wind but the other two were good. Mills punted three times for Groesbeck for an average of 19 yards. Two of Mills punts were also carried out of bounds by the wind.

THE GAME.

First Quarter.

Groesbeck kicked 10 yards to Kerner who returned it 20. The Goats line held and Kerner punted 35 to Groesbeck with no return. Groesbeck plunged, passed and faked their way for their first down of the game. The Cats held them and the ball went to Mexia. Perkins and Clover hit the line for the first down, for the Cats. Buford fumbled and lost four. Signals got mixed up and lost about 10 more. The wind got under Kerner's punt and carried it out of bounds the distance being about 12 yards. Groesbeck made another first down through the line another first down through right tackle and a pass. Mills went through tackle for 11 yards and a touchdown. They added the extra point on a pass. Groesbeck kicked 20 yards to Lucas who returned it 7 as the whistle for the first quarter blew.

Second Quarter.

Perkins made 14 and first down around left end. Thompson, Lucas, Perkins, and Buford rang up two first downs in quick succession on end runs but the Goat line held and the ball went over to Groesbeck. They punted 14 yards out of bounds. The Cats rang up three first downs in succession and Thompson plunged three yards for the Cats first counted. Kerner drop kicked goal. Score Mexia 7 Groesbeck 7.

Thompson kicked over the Groesbeck goal and the ball was put in play on the 20 yard line. Groesbeck fumbled and Clover recovered for Mexia. A few plunges failed and then Kerner failed to drop kick a field goal. Groesbeck ball on the 20 yard line. They made one first down and then Lucas blocked their punt but Groesbeck recovered. And the first half was over.

Third Quarter.

Groesbeck kicked 40 yards to Thompson who returned 15 yards. The Goats held the Cats and Kerner punted 45 yards with about 10 yards return. The Goats were being penalized for roughness at this stage of the game and Mills punted 26 to Buford who returned it 7 yards. Lucas then ran for about 40 yards for a touchdown. Kerner failed by inches to drop kick goal. Score Mexia 13, Groesbeck 7.

The Goats kicked to Perkins who returned the kick 20 yards. The

"Hank" White one of the principal funmakers of J. A. Coburn's Minstrels coming to the Opera House, tomorrow night has become known and appreciated as a top-notch minstrel for his droll and characteristic portrayals of black face comedy in various roles. Billed simply as "Just Plain White in Black" he has originated and produced many very clever and enjoyable singing dancing and comedy skits, afterpieces and acts. Quoting from leading critics "It is so much what he says or does as the way he does it" which stamps him as a real entertainer and funny man. Quiet and unobtrusive he has made hosts of friends and become a strong favorite on the season circuit. As Stage Manager for "Coke" his duties are manifold and the success of the performance rests largely on his personal efforts from the rise to fall of curtain. His productions in the new show this season are said to be exceptionally funny and enjoyable.

By HECK

Wow, did you notice how close my dope on the Black Cat-Groesbeck game came near running true to form? Believe me, I sure felt uneasy for the Cats when Groesbeck reeled off a touchdown in about 8 minutes after the game started and I knew the Cats were overconfident and they proved it by staging a magnificent come-back and finally won 13 to 7 after showing some brilliant football.

The Cats likewise showed some bad football especially with their fumbling and it looked to me like it cost them two touchdowns and perhaps three. The Cat line also failed to hold the heavy charging Groesbeck backs and it cost a touchdown when Mills reeled off a cross buck and went through the line for many yards and Groesbeck's only counter.

Wayne Lucas got back in the game and the Cats can thank their lucky stars that he did for the Cat tackle was sure broke out with good football and his sixty yard run around right end for a touchdown won the game for the Cats. In this run Lucas showed just what he has meant to the Cats all season and his work will be greatly needed in the games that follow in order with Palestine, Corsicana, and Mat who are the Cats next victims.

The Cat ends seemed to have oodles of trouble in breaking up the Groesbeck end runs but Coach Poter finally hit the right combination and in the last half the county seat crew were up against a brick wall and made but little headway on any kind of a play.

A high wind swept across the field and aerial play was out of the question and used but very few times by either team. Groesbeck depended more upon their fast charging backs to gain through the line while the Cats stayed with their end runs and fake formations to gain ground and in this respect used good judgment and but for fumbling when being tackled would have rolled up a very respectable score.

I want to compliment Groesbeck on the clean cut, fighting game they played and when I say "fighting game" I mean just that for they fought to the very last and are game to the core and were beaten by a team that took quick advantage of the breaks that came their way and a team that finally got down to

Cats reeled off four first downs in a hurry and Perkins had made 20 through left tackle on Groesbeck 15 yard line when he was tackled and he fumbled the ball, Groesbeck recovering. They punted 14 yards and Mills started down the field once more but lost the ball on another fumble. They made a first down and a pass failed as in end of the third quarter came.

Fourth Quarter.

The Goats opened an offensive drive that looked good for a counter, opening the last quarter with a 25 yard run between right tackle and right end. The Cats held them and the ball went over to Mexia. Lucas ripped off 17 yards at right end. On the third play Groesbeck intercepted a pass, the Cats held and the ball went back over to Mexia. Kerner punted 35 yards. Perkins intercepted a pass. Perkins made 2 at left end. Buford made 7 at right tackle. Thompson made 3 and first down and the final whistle was blown closing one of the most exciting games of the season for the Black Cats.

SCORE—
Mexia 13—0—7—6—0—13
Groesbeck 7—0—0—0—0—7

real work and played better football in all branches.

The Cat hospital list will be enlarged when final toll is taken of the Groesbeck game. Kerner got a nasty injury and others are suffering from injuries of various kinds. In fact the Cats run in to a jam-up eleven that dealt them all kinds of misery before they could win and it is a question as to their condition for the Palestine game. However, with good condition and even breaks the Cats should win by one touchdown.

I base this on the fact that I believe the Cats have learned a lesson in over-confidence and will now get down to business when the whistle for the initial kickoff blows—it's either do that or take a beating and I hope the Groesbeck game has shown the Cats that I am right.

Personally, I think the Groesbeck eleven threw a real scare into the Cats by the ease they scored their first touchdown and the Cats had to show their stuff to come back and win and for this they are to be commended but at the same time they need to be told a plenty for the poor game they played at the opening of the game.

And Coach Poter is just the huckle berry that will tell it to them.

If you know of any school that wants to hire a real honest-to-goodness scout to "look over" opposing football eleven please refer them to yours truly—I went down to "scout" the Groesbeck eleven and got chased to the tail and uncut timbers—they

OF MEXIA HEAR COUNTY ROAD ISSUE EXPLAINED

Lion "Doe" Marion Brown, newly elected president of the Lions Club was the principal speaker at the Lion meeting Friday at noon, when he made his inaugural address with an elegant flow of oratory appealing to the members of the club for their support and expressing his appreciation for the honor bestowed upon him.

The meeting opened with a few songs by the members before being seated at the table. Mrs. I. H. Hastings, accompanied by Mrs. Allen Hatch at the piano, gave two very beautiful selections, which were much appreciated by all present. Following this came an introduction of the visitors, and new members who were attending their first meeting of the club. A delegation of Lions were present from Groesbeck as guests of the Mexia organization.

The Lions were indeed fortunate in having Rotarian John E. Aubrey of Denison to make a ten minute talk, after being introduced by his son, Lion Victor K. Aubrey, pastor of the Central Presbyterian Church of this city. Rotarian Aubrey talked on the needs of a Farm Demonstration agent for Limestone county, and proved that the progress of the country depended largely on the farmers. Dr. Aubrey is a very interesting speaker and impressed his audience very much with his appeal for the benefit of the farmers. J. F. Stewart was nominated by the Board of Directors as reporter for the club.

Following the address of Rotarian Aubrey, Carl Davis, manager of the New Way Laundry was called on for a brief talk and explained to his audience how the organization of which he is manager is a benefit to the public and gave a new light on the process of cleaning. A motion was put before the meeting for the changing of the day of meeting and upon being voted upon carried unanimously to change the day from Friday to Tuesday at 12:10 o'clock. The meeting was adjourned promptly on time but the members were asked to remain a few minutes to hear the message the Groesbeck Lions had to deliver to the Mexia business men. The visitors from the county seat were: Messrs. Scott Reed, J. M. Arndale, W. G. Bradley, J. B. Watson and P. M. Humble. J. M. Arndale was the spokesman for the delegation and presented to the Lions club the subject of floating $3,250,000 bond issue for good roads of the county. Mr. Arndale received loud applause at the conclusion of his speech and was informed that the Mexia Lions Club would present the proposition to the Chamber of Commerce which should rightfully be the proper authorities to give support to the movement.

Death Stood Guard Over Suspected House

(By United Press)
DALLAS, Nov. 8.—Death barred the way of two policemen armed with a search warrant here. When Charles Foraker and Grover Garrison approached a house suspected of being the hiding place for liquor, the place was crowded with people. In the front room were watchers at the bedside of an aged woman, dying, according to physicians. The officers slipped away with their unaided warrant.

SAVED FROM FIRE BY BARKING DOG

(By United Press)
DALLAS, Nov. 8.—Alarmed by the frenzied barking of the family dog, Mrs. J. E. Thomas rushed out of the only exit of their home to find the building in flames. The house collapsed a few minutes after she had escaped from the building.

G. A. Walters urges all members of his class to be present Sunday morning, and specially invites all men not members of any other class to visit his class. The subject for discussion is extra interesting.

JUST A LINE

By OWEN FRIEND WATKINS.
Oh how sweet are the smiles of a mother,
How her longings are turned into joy,
When the postman comes by with a letter
Simply wrote in the hand of her boy.
Ev'ry hour since he left the old fire-side
She has counseled her Saviour in prayer
To keep watch on her boy and protect him
From the pitfalls of shame and despair.
Just a line, at the end of his labors,
With his love to the old folks so dear,
How he likes his employer and neighbors,
Fills her heart with its gladness and cheer.
How she thrills as she reads ev'ry sentence
And thanks God thru her tears and her smiles
That He watches her boy in the distance
And protects him from treacherous wiles.
When the cold hand of Fate is against you
And the crowd passes by like the wind
There is one no grim fortune can falter
For your mother is always your friend.
When disease, or some crime casts its shadows,
On your life she's still loyal to you
And will stand by the grave or the gallows
And forgive and forget what you do.
Thoughtless man, in the world as you wander
From the loved ones around the old shrine,
When you think of her love and devotion
Can't you write your dear mother a line?
For some day when the last call is given
And she sleeps neath the sod at sweet rest
You will pray to your Father in heaven
And acknowledge she loved you the best.

The New Studebaker Special Six Duplex Phaeton

Open car when you want it —an enclosed car in 30 seconds

WITH the new-type Studebaker Duplex you may take your choice—ride in an open car if you like—enjoy the cool, fresh air and healthful sunshine.

Then in 30 seconds—without even leaving your seat—it can be changed to a deeply cushioned, richly appointed, fully protected enclosed car. It's no fuss or bother at all—simply lower the roller enclosures—it's so easy a child can do it.

No more hurried efforts to put up curtains in the wind and rain.

No more hunting for the right one while the storm beats in.

No more exposure through holes torn in them while trying to obtain for the emergency the protection given by a closed car. For in the Duplex the side enclosures are instantly accessible—yet rolled up safely out of the way when not in use.

If this two-fold utility were the only feature of the new Studebaker cars they would still be a sensational value—but there are many others.

New body lines—new beauty—more powerful engines—new ease of gear shifting—genuine balloon tires—and the easiest steering car you ever drove.

In justice to yourself—see this car today.

HELP MEXIA GROW!

If a man can write a better book, preach a better sermon, build a better mouse trap, run a better store or extend a broader smile, the world will make a beaten path to his door, though his house is built in the woods.

The progress written on all sides in Mexia, the marks of progress in this entire community, the footsteps of more people coming here to live or to visit indicates that the men of Mexia are doing things just a little better as the years go marching on.

A Chinaman was working at his trade as a laundryman in a mining camp in the far Northwest. While out delivering some bundles one snow bound morning, he saw a big grizzly bear coming towards him at a pretty gait, sniffing at his tracks. The Chinaman chuckled, with a shrinking heart, "Huh, you likee my tracks. I makee some more."

Now one of the things Mexia wants is more tracks leading to this city, made by the splendid citizenry of all surrounding communities.

O, there are some antiquated things about us. Some are good. Some are bad. The good, we hope we will cling to tenaciously. However, we hope that we won't be deluded like the new house girl spoken of in ancient literature who was asked by her new employer if she had changed the bed sheets. She replied, "No, they have not worn out yet."

Mexia's idea in having a Trades Shower was not altogether for the purpose of swelling cash registers for one day. The big idea was to win friends.

A young lady had been proposed to by a young fellow who had just lost a dear relative. Before she replied to his proposal, she interrogated him as follows: "Did he leave you anything?" "Yes," the young man said, whereupon the young sweet one answered, "Here's my hand." About that time the young man seemed to realize that he had made a double mistake, both in the proposal and in the incomplete sentence, so added, He gave me his blessing." Whereupon the horrified girl continued, "As I was saying, here's my hand-bag."

Mexia is like the young man. This city is seeking hands and not handbags.

However, any bringing their hand bags along when they come to Mexia will find that it pays to trade in Mexia and the events of Saturday demonstrated that to all who were here.

Those who came from points some distance away and who do not come here often doubtless, at least we hope, found Mexia folks with the same warm hearts and wonderful hospitality that they know exists in their own matchless communities.

The bullfrog lived in the valley. He had never been away from his home community. Other animals pointed him to the mountains in the distance and urged him to take a long trip and see the world. Finally, he decided to accept their invitation and so strolled off one crisp morning eager for the long journey. He hopped across the valley and up the mountain side, beyond which a view of the world stretched in one fine panorama. Now, you know a bull frog's eyes are squarely on top of his head. When the globe hopper reached the top of the peak, he reared up on his hind legs to get a good view of the world beyond. This threw his eyes back across the valley in which he always lived, instead of on the other side. The bullfrog dropped down to his feet in disgust and said, "I'm going back home, the whole world is just like it is back down in my valley."

Mexia wants the people of her trade territory to learn that this city is composed of the same high class, patriotic, home-loving citizenship as are to be found in their own hospitable home communities. If you expect to find us different, in this respect, disappointment is certain.

There's no danger now of a fellow losing his way when he starts out to come to Mexia. Many years ago, it might have been difficult for the newcomer to find Mexia. Old timers tell about a man who was coming to Mexia and in the night lost his way. He saw a guide post by the side of the road and had to climb it to read its admonition. Imagine his disgust when he got to the top, struck a match and read, "Wet paint."

We know that no one who came here Saturday had such an experience.

With politics we're through, at least for a couple of years; they knock our thoughts askew and bore us most to tears. We'd rather speak of blackeyed peas and laud them to the skies, or pull a synecopated wheeze about turnip greens and pies. A bean to the yellow yam, the pumpkin white with frost than boosting of a crippled clam by politician bossed. Full soon the festive spare-rib will grace our plate at noon and with our napkin for a bib we'll play our fork and spoon. The sausage and the back-bone, the liver and the jowl—we'll let discordant things alone, these satisfy the soul. We're glad the fuss is over and Thanksgiving's on the way; the turkeys in the clover and hen eggs in the hay. There's custards in the making and several kinds of cake; there's gelatine gently shaking and a dozen things to bake. With politics we're through for a couple of years or more, they drive us most to tears and make our conscience sore.—Sam Miller in Mineral Wells Index.

Amen, amen, and then some more; amen, amen, and then some more.

Report has it that former Lieutenant Osborne Wood, who was reported to have made a fortune dabbling in stocks while stationed at Manila, has just dropped his last dime at Monte Carlo. Well, that was about what we expected. Anyway, the gentleman has experienced a double thrill—that of winning and losing.—Denison Herald.

Expert testimony. Ellis has been on both sides—several times—and knows what it is to win and what isn't to lose. But neither kills.

In the glorious realm of love there is no interruption of its beautiful processes by the frenzy of politics. The babies arrive on schedule time, and the marriage license clerk keeps steadily employed.—George Bailey in Houston Post-Dispatch.

And each one is necessary to the other, I. e., the babies and the m. l. clerk.

If anybody doubts that a lot of our Socialist and Independent friends are good Democrats now, all they have to do is ask if they voted the ticket from Ma down to constable. That is to be the test of a man's Democracy hereafter. It doesn't make any difference what he believes if he voted the ticket.—Bonham Favorite.

Nor what his color might be.

The power to thrill as a public speaker doesn't necessarily bring success in politics, but it goes a long way. The man or woman who can go before the people with a dominant personality and present their claims with a fine oratorical ability certainly gets much farther than the "common sense appeal," however good it may be.—Bryan Eagle.

If you can figure out just who had the "common sense appeal" and who pulled the "oratory" in the late "unpleasantness," then you might solve the "cross word" puzzle. In the national affair, it seems that the fellow who said nothing but just saved wood got the big end of the votes.

How dear to our heart is the old silver dollar, when some kind subscriber presents it to view; the liberty head without necktie or collar, and all the strange things which to us seem so new. The wide-spreading eagle, the arrow below it, the stars and the words with the strange things they tell; the coin of our fathers, we are glad that we know it, for some time other 'twill come in right well, the spread-eagle dollar, the star spangled dollar, the old silver dollar we all love so well.—Exchange.

Our cynical old bachelor friend says that woman was the first loud speaker, the Sewing Circle the first broadcasting station and the local gossip the first amplifier.—Sam Miller in Mineral Wells Index.

How did a bachelor ever find out so much?

Another Evil Of Bootleg Liquor

DALLAS, Nov. 7.—Everything probably would have been fine for the girl if the boy had kept still. But he talked.

The couple were arraigned before Judge P. D. Crawford charged with spooning in the city park. The boy drew a ten dollar fine without comment and the judge hesitated.

The girl was tearful and pretty. Then her escort spilled the well known navies.

"Liquor always has that effect upon her," he asserted. "Every time she gets a drink or two she starts crying and cries until she sobers up." The testimony was confirmed by Judge Crawford from other sources and the maid also drew a ticket for $10.

HOW LONG CAN YOU CONCENTRATE MIND?

(By International News Service.)
CHICAGO, Nov. 7.—How long can you concentrate? Three minutes is an extremely long period for the average person to hold attention fixed on one thing, according to A. G. Gulbransen, piano manufacturer, in an address at an educational conference here.

"Try to direct your mind to one line of thought and see how long you can hold to it," said Mr. Gulbransen. "Take your watch in your hand and time yourself. Fix your mind on one object, or one problem, and then time yourself how long you can concentrate your attention."

Straight Ahead TO HOME OWNERSHIP

When the whole world is talking and thinking building and so many people are homeless with rents exceeding the amount of money exacted to meet payments on a home is the time you should arrange to build and start enjoying contentment and protection in a home of your own.

Plans No. 1633 and 1634

This charming little home plan is worthy all the consideration you may care to give it. The exterior is most attractive, the terrace porch with its pergola beams and colonial posts, cement steps, and floor adds attractiveness and with the walls painted white and roof moss green with added color in the shrubbery and roses, you have a most practical and pleasing combination. The alternate floor plans—study them carefully—for here is where you will appreciate the careful attention that has been given that maximum of room and conveniences may be had at minimum cost.

NOW that the road to home ownership is open and you are in a receptive mood to consider seriously the advantages to be gained by yourself and every member of your family through home ownership, is the time to select plans and build.

It isn't necessary that you have all the money ready to pay cash for homes—a small payment down and balance in monthly installments is the plan under which the majority of present day home owners acquired homes. Your monthly payments will not exceed the amount of money you are now paying out for rent, so there is no good reason why you should not begin applying rent money towards buying a home of your own.

Determination is the world's greatest stimulus for home ownership and when this is applied in connection with thoughts of the future and desires for those most near and dear to you, together with the fact that choice home sites are rapidly being purchased by home makers on which to build permanent homes it makes additional reasons why you should accept this recommendation and start up the road that leads straight ahead to home ownership, pride, self respect, contentment, and be relieved from future burdens of paying rent.

You may have to make sacrifices to acquire a home; but the making of one sacrifice to attain your goal will inspire you to make another, each forming a stepping stone to independence, and once let a man become fired with progressive ambitions, nothing can stop his progress.

THE FOLLOWING ORGANIZATIONS, PUBLIC-SPIRITED FIRMS AND INDIVIDUALS ARE INTERESTED IN HELPING TO MAKE MEXIA A CITY OF MORE BEAUTIFUL HOMES AND TO ASSIST IN EVERY POSSIBLE WAY IN CREATING HOMES FOR THOSE WHO ARE DESIROUS OF MAKING MEXIA THEIR FUTURE HOME, AND IT IS THEIR RECOMMENDATION THAT ALL WHO CAN POSSIBLY DO SO BUILD HOMES OR CONVERT THEIR SURPLUS MONEY INTO HOME BUILDING CHANNELS. Thanksgiving Is To Be Big Event At Texas Varsity

AUSTIN, Texas, Nov. 8.—Elaborate plans for a reunion of the ex-students of the University of Texas at Thanksgiving are rapidly going forward, according to T. H. Shelby, chairman of the committee on entertainment. For the first time excursion rates have been obtained for Wednesday before Thanksgiving, as well as for Thursday, through the efforts of W. E. Long of the Austin Chamber of Commerce.

Members of the faculty have been asked to remain in their offices the Wednesday before Thanksgiving from nine until one except when meeting classes, so that ex-students may have an opportunity of meeting their old professors.

The Stadium will be open for inspection the entire day. Visitors may be able to locate their seats and see the work that has been done. At three in the afternoon there will be the dedication of the flag pole given by the citizens of Fredericksburg in memory of Louis Jordan, one of the greatest all-around athletes of the University of Texas, who was killed in the World War.

On Wednesday evening at 6 o'clock, a dinner will be given at Brackenridge Hall for all ex-students who formerly resided there. Senator Morris Shepherd will deliver the main address. A band concert and rally will be held in front of the Main Building at 7:30 o'clock. This will be followed by a reception given by President W. M. W. Spilman and the members of the University faculty in the G. B. Study Hall. There will also probably be an All-University dance that night in the Woman's Gymnasium.

On Thursday morning, the faculty will again remain in their offices from 10 to 12 o'clock to receive visitors. All University buildings and the Stadium will be open for inspection.

Cadets of A. & M. College will stage a parade in full equipment from the depot up Congress Avenue to the capitol, as soon as they arrive. They are expected at eleven o'clock. At the capitol the boys will be served sandwiches and coffee by the Austin Chamber of Commerce and the Austin A. & M. Club. Citizens of Austin have been asked to show the visitors over the city and also see that a way is provided for all to get to the Stadium, where the annual football game between A. & M. College and the University of Texas will be played at three o'clock.

After the game a smoker and reception will be given for the A. & M. faculty at the University Club.

The A. & M. headquarters will be at the Dri-Kill Hotel, while the Texas-Essex will meet at the Stephen F. Austin Hotel. Baggage can be checked at both hotels, at the Y. M. C. A., and at the Chamber of Commerce, it is announced.

It is expected to have from 20,000 to 25,000 visitors, an estimated increase of from 10,000 to 15,000 more than the city has ever had before.

In case the two hotels will not be able to accommodate the crowds, the Austin Chamber of Commerce has listed 1,000 homes that are willing to house visitors.

A PARTNER OF SUNLIGHT

Cod-liver oil has aptly been called the partner of sunlight. Both out of Nature's storehouse of energy are of supreme importance to a child with rickets.

Scott's Emulsion

and sunlight have been used for decades to give strength to weak-bones. A little of Scott's Emulsion with each feeding does wonders for a malnourished child or adult.

Keep your boy or girl out in the sunlight and give them Scott's Emulsion everyday—regularly!

LADIES FRIDAY CLUB.

The Ladies Friday Club was called to order on Nov. 7 by the President. After the transaction of business matters roll call was answered by quotations from Woodrow Wilson.

A delightful musical number was rendered by Mrs. Oscar Denning and Mrs. Ira Needham.

Mrs. A. H. Berry, who was in charge of the program, had as her subject the important question "Training for Citizenship—The Home." As an introduction she quoted a clipping from one of our local business men, which is as follows:

"The home is the nucleus around which the entire fabric of our civilization must stand or fall. Destroy the fireside and nothing remains but confusion and chaos. Our boys and girls of today, God bless them, are to be the men and women of tomorrow and on their shoulders must fall the responsibility that is now ours. Let's make them strong physically, alert mentally, and impregnable morally."

Mrs. Berry discussed "Education The Defense of the American Home." Home is the source of American ideals. It is the workshop in which each member of the family should hear his or her part of the burden. In the home one should receive training in loyalty and unselfishness.

In a most impressive manner Mrs. T. B. Chatham gave "Home the Big Thing."

"Some of the things needed to form a family circle" was told by Mrs. Allen Hatch in which she stressed the influence of good music in the home.

Mrs. Vickers discussed "Religion in the Home," stating that a religious atmosphere is the need of every child. Mrs. John Sanders recalled "Memories of the Home." Then Mrs. Berry concluded with a most impressive poem entitled "Houses and Homes."

As Nov. 11 is Armistice Day the leader inserted a short program on Peace, reading an article "Because I am an American." Mrs. W. M. White gave an interesting paper on "World Peace." The program ended with an urgent appeal "Kill War" written by Anatole France a short time before his death. Then followed a peace prayer by Mrs. Weaver Barnett.

Woman Policeman In Port Arthur Will Clean Town

(By United Press)
PORT ARTHUR, Nov. 8.—"Flirt-ver-flirters" must find a berth outside Port Arthur. That is the edict of Mrs. M. M. Stokes, the city's first woman copper.

"Mashing," "spooning," "goo-goo eyeing," and "shleeking," as well as "shebaling" are doomed to go in the port city. They are the favorite dishes of this new "policeman." Flirting with school girls by young and old men was becoming a menace and had to be stopped, therefore Mrs. Stokes was given a badge and told to start a housecleaning.

WHY I THREW IT OUT.

By FRED T. BENNETT.

The law that which in solemn oath you swore you would Uphold when entering into your career as Lawyer true and bold, This law it reads that I should do the-very thing I did, That you should plead it's ignorance takes me back a bit.

You know the law takes no account of that most spacious plea And when a lawyer pleads such stuff what sort of chap is he? I know that there is one thing sure that every voter here Be he Lawyer just a man will know now what he cant or can To vote his ballot clery.

Aged Negro Fair Employee Is Dead

(By United Press)
DALLAS, Nov. 8.—Dave Smith, 62, negro and veteran employee at the State Fair grounds, passed out on the heels of the 38th annual state fair of Texas. "Old Dave" as he was known to hundreds of fair visitors and officials, died here Wednesday night.

Dave started his career with the state fair of Texas, in 1886 at the opening exposition. At that time he was a personal servant of Captain Sydney Smith, then secretary of the fair.

"Dave" was an honest, conscientious, good old southern negro and was regarded as a permanent fixture around the fair grounds," W. H. Stratton, secretary said.

MEXIA WINS OVER CRIPPLED LIONS

(Teague Chronicle)
The Teague Lions, with Fullback Yarbrough, Halfback Colgin and Quarterback Tommie all on the injured list but trying to play, suffered a 34 to 0 defeat at the hands of the stronger Mexia team on the local gridiron last Friday.

The Lions held the Black Cats to a 7 to 0 score during the first half, turning them back by inches several times, but the battering line and running attack of the visitors soon told on the crippled Teague boys, and this along with a couple of bad breaks enabled the Cats to put across two touchdowns in each of the third and fourth periods. Late in the third quarter Bass, Lion right end, and Moore right tackle, were both taken out on account of injuries, greatly weakening the scrimmage and they weaved their way through the crippled backfield.

Mexia had several stars, but the writer did not know their names and consequently is unable to give them. For Teague, the defensive work of Captain Davis at tackle and Bass at end deserve special mention. These two men are towers on the defense, and have not met their equal all season.

Sunday is Rev. W. B. Andrews last day of the Conference year in the pulpit of the First Methodist church. Every member is urged to attend and the public is cordially invited.

J. Meers, geologist of this section who long ago pronounced that a big field was due to be discovered in Northeast Mexia, is much gratified over the outlook as his predictions seem to be about to come true. The leaving of the chalk at 2564 in the Boyd Simmons has been accepted as a very favorable indication.

LIMESTONE COUNTY BOY GOES TO UNITED STATES SENATE

FORMER CITIZEN OF KOSSE IS NEW MEXICO SENATOR

Limestone County can now claim to be the birthplace of a United States Senator.

In the New Mexico election Sam G. Bratton, democratic nominee, was elected.

Judge Bratton is now a member of the supreme court in that state having been elevated to that position recently from the district bench.

He is the son of the late Calvin G. Bratton, who formerly resided in Kosse, in this county, where Senator Bratton was born.

He went West in his early life with his father, attended the public schools of Hereford, was admitted to the bar, practiced law for a few years in Texas and then moved to New Mexico.

In New Mexico he was signally honored by election and promotion to the highest honor in that neighboring state.

Senator Bratton is only about 35 years of age, but is regarded as one of the ablest jurists in New Mexico.

He has other relations in this part of Texas being a cousin of B. C. and Frank Bratton and Mrs. G. A. Pringle of Marlin.

He is also remembered by some of the old timers in this county who feel proud of his success and the signal honor that he has achieved.

LIME IS TO BE AVAILABLE IN THIS COUNTY SOON

By J. W. STUBENRAUCH.

At last we are assured by the gentleman who operates the rock crusher on the Stroud farm on the Navasota river that there will soon be plenty of the best of fine ground lime for use in our fields.

This is something to be thankful for. Using lime is the first step towards recovering some of the fertility of our farms, lost during twenty years in growing crops and wasting humus.

We can all remember the fine crops that were produced in the earlier days. That was because then our land was full of organic matter (humus). By means of lime we are enabled to restore again quite a good part of this lost humus as well as to grow in the meantime better crops of feed and sorghum. Legumes, such as Sweet Clover, Alfalfa, Soy Beans, Cowpeas, grow well and yield heavy where lime is freely used and it just takes such crops to put once more life into a good many of our present day farms.

All of our land will be helped by a crop rotation, in other words, by growing more feed stuff instead of cotton year after year. While all of our wide awake farmers realize this, there are, however, a good many that have to be shown. And right here is where a live and efficient county agent, with at least one good assistant for our county, is in demand.

We have some good men among us who can fill the bill alright. If a graduate from A. & M. College has to be chosen let our Hon. Commissioners Court see to it that the applicant understands the value of better seeds, how to terrace and save land from washing; that he understands the value and use of lime, how best to use it.

The right sort of man cannot help but be a big help to most of us farmers. There is not one of us that knows a thing before we learn it and lots of us got a good deal yet to learn.

Although cotton is a short crop again this season, yet if all of our farmers had all the feed they need for their stock, Texas would be one of the most prosperous states in the union.

As matters stand, I cannot see much chance of improvements in general farming, unless we do get the assistance and advice of an intelligent, well posted helper.

METHODISTS TO WIND UP YEAR IN THE CITY SUNDAY

The services Sunday wind up the Conference year for the First Methodist church of this city and for all churches and congregations in the Central Texas Methodist Conference.

The entire membership is urged to be present at all services to make this the banner day of the year, and a fitting close to two-years' of successful work by the pastor, Rev. W. B. Andrews.

In the two years that he has served this congregation this time, more than 300 members have been added to the church rolls and the First Methodist church of Mexia is now recognized as one of the leading churches in Texas Methodism. Rev. Andrews is known as one of the leading ministers of the church, as well as one of the ablest of pulpit speakers in Southern Methodism. His sermons are full of spiritual food which satisfies the longings of the heart.

Those who would send him to conference this year with all reports in full are urged to pay all assessments, if they have not already done so. Rev. Andrews will leave Monday for Brownwood for the Annual Conference.

The church has conducted a big program during the year, raising more than $30,000 for the work of the church and for the expansion and improvement plans of the congregation.

The usual church services will be observed during the day; Sunday School at 9:45. Preaching services at 11 a. m. and 7:30 P. M. and the Intermediate and Junior Leagues in the afternoon at 3:00 and 4:00 o'clock.

The Woman's Missionary Society observed Monday as the week of prayer, serving luncheon at the church and electing new officers for the Conference year. Mrs. A. H. Berry, the splendid President, was re-elected.

On Thursday, the ladies also served the Mexia Rotary club with its weekly luncheon in the new basement of the church, which was recently improved and made ready for service.

A. H. Berry, Chairman of the Committee to seat the basement, announces that the seats have been ordered and should be here for installation in a short while.

The directors of the Salvation Army in Mexia announce that a mass meeting will be held at the K. P. Hall Monday morning at 10:00 o'clock, to which the entire public is invited and at which time the program of the Salvationists for another year will be decided upon.

Jesse McLendon is President of the Board and the other members of the Board are among the leading citizens of the community. They are very anxious to have the cooperation of the public in the work, which is essential to its success in a larger way. They have as a result of this concern invited every citizen of Mexia to join them Monday morning in discussing the situation and in arriving at a conclusion for the good of a bigger and better Mexia.

Envoy and Mrs. M. L. Hamilton have worked hard since they came to Mexia and have rendered invaluable service which is appreciated deeply. They have handled thousands of cases in the past year.

The Salvation Army has attended to practically all charity cases in the city, not confining their service to street meetings by any means. In this way, the community chest has been carried out in a way. Envoy Hamilton states that it is his pleasure and duty to look into every case coming up in the community and he will welcome all reports, making proper investigations and promptly.

MANY HOUSES TO CLOSE HERE ARMISTICE DAY

Many concerns in Mexia have signed up to close all day Armistice Day. It is understood that practically every automobile concern in the city has agreed to take the day off, observing the holiday. The banks will also be closed. If the other business houses close, the Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, Jere Cason, will make such an announcement Monday. BAPTISTS EXPECT GREAT RESULTS AT SERVICES SUNDAY

After three weeks of most successful revivalistic services, in which the First Baptist church has seen its membership increase by more than 200 and in which hundreds have been revived spiritually, today is to mark another great day in the life of the local First Baptist congregation.

The first two weeks of the meeting was conducted by the pastor, Rev. Joe Jeffers, assisted by Paul B. Harper, as choir director and leader in song service.

During the past week, Rev. V. B. Starnes, noted Baptist evangelist, of Waco, has assisted. The tent has been filled nightly with the big throngs that have attended the meeting. Many visitors have come from distant points and from various congregations and churches throughout this part of Texas.

Every service finds many visitors present, drawn by the power of the evangelistic campaign and the fine reports of the excellent service being rendered.

Last Sunday two well attended and very helpful mass meetings were held. One was at the Baptist church for the ladies, conducted by Mrs. Joe Jeffers. One of the features of the fine occasion was an address by Mrs. Victor K. Aubrey, pronounced to be of the very highest rank. The other was at the big tent, at which time Evangelist Starnes delivered an able address.

The young people of the church have been very active during the revival, contributing beautifully to the service in song at each meeting.

The First Baptist Church in Mexia has set out to bring all local Baptists into the church, if possible, and in the shortest length of time. There are hundreds of men, women and children in the city, yet unaffiliated with the congregation and the church extends a cordial invitation to all of them to line up with the active army of Baptists and Christian people in this community, working for the advancement of the cause. The fact that such a large number had not yet joined was discovered in a recent census taken prior to the beginning of the revival. The results of the past three weeks indicates that much progress has been made along the lines of the program laid out.

The work of the First Baptist church during the past year has been spectacular and has attracted statewide interest.

At the big tent tonight, Evangelist Starnes will reenact the crucifixion at the services which start at 7:00 o'clock. It is said that no other preacher in the country presents this story as does Rev. Starnes and that twenty five per cent of his conversions in meetings have come as a result of this message. Protestants and Catholics, saint and sinner, are all invited. The announcement is also made that the tent will be comfortable.

Warren Dale, attorney with the Boyd Oil Company, of Dallas, was a Mexia visitor Saturday.

EVENT NOTABLE AND UNIQUE IN MEXIA HISTORY

Saturday was the biggest day of the year in the business district of Mexia. It was the occasion of observing the Mexia Trades Day Show, a unique affair suggested by the Retail Merchants Association and put over by that organization, the Mexia Chamber of Commerce and all other civic clubs working in unison.

The program began about 10:00 o'clock in the morning, when L. S. Patterson, Master of Ceremonies, who gave the entire day to put the program across in splendid fashion, introduced A. Garland Adair to deliver the address of welcome. The response was made by H. W. Tolson whom Mr. Patterson introduced as one of the leading citizens of the rural communities and of this part of Texas. Mr. Tolson grew somewhat reminiscent, recalling the progress of Mexia from its village days up to the present and bubbling over with praise and loyalty for the home community with every utterance.

Mr. Patterson of the program committee has worked tirelessly for the success of the first event of its kind in the history of Texas municipalities. Never has such a trades show, or been given and he and John McElroy, President of the Retail Credit Association, Jere Cason, Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, Hardy Eubanks, President of the Chamber of Commerce, and all other citizens who had contributed to the day and given many hours freely to the cause, wore a smile as broad as their hospitable welcome when they saw the thousands gathered around the stand at the corner of Commerce and Sherman for the event of the day.

The Westminster College band from Metchuana furnished the music for the day without charge, their renditions being most pleasing to all and deeply appreciated by the business men of the city. They won many friends here by their day of service.

Manager "Pat" Box of the local picture houses and the Opera House threw open the doors to the public all during the morning and throughout those hours they were crowded, many of the spectators seeing a show for the first time in years, which they greatly appreciated.

Many of the restaurants of the city served meals at the noon hour to the visitors for 25 cents.

By 12:30 the streets of the business district were roped off and the crowds increased around the stands and waited patiently throughout the awarding the prizes.

L. S. Patterson continued his services during this part, assisted by Jere Cason, T. B. Haines, John Carley, Jr. and others.

The awarding of the prizes for the three prettiest girls present from out of town points was the first award. The prizes going to Miss Bernice Lee Garrison of Tehuacana, Miss Ella Teer of Cotton Gin and Miss Joe Lindsey of Cotton gin. These received first, second and third prizes in the order named. The prizes were a $20 hat by Mrs. C. O. Anderson, $10 cash and $5 cash.

The oldest settler present, living in Limestone County, proved to be Captain Hampton Steele of Thornton who was awarded the $10.

The oldest married couple prize of $15 given by Jack Womack went to Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bozeman who had been married more than 59 years.

The prize for the youngest married couple present was awarded to Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Lewis of near Coolidge who have been married only a little over 58 years. Prize $15 in cash, by Jack Womack.

These two couples were the only contestants in these events.

R. S. Smith and family won the prize of $25 in groceries from Tidwell's for having come the longest distance. They travelled 80 miles from Robertson county.

R. E. Bozeman and family received the $25 in groceries from Tidwell's as being the largest family. He and his wife and 10 children were present.

Extended reports of the day will be given in early issues of The News.

BLACK CATS WIN HARD FOUGHT GAME AT GROESBECK

STRONG TEAM AT COUNTY SEAT HOLDS GAME 13 TO 7

The fighting Black Cats under Coach Poteet added another win to their string of victories when they defeated the strong Groesbeck team 13 to 7, at the county seat Friday afternoon. The Groesbeck aggregation coached by D. M. Majors sprung a surprise and gave the Cats a terrible scare when they scored a touchdown in the first quarter, the Cats came back fighting in the later stages of the game and held them when they liked but were unable to run up a large score.

The two Cats to make touchdowns were Wayne Lucas and Wayne Thompson, Captain of the Cats. The Cats tied the score in the second quarter on a series of line plunges and end runs and Thompson smashed the center of the line for three yards and touchdown after it had been advanced that far by Buford, Perkinson, Karner and Clover. In the third quarter Wayne Lucas went around right end for 40 yards and a touchdown shaking off several would be tacklers and was thrown by the safety man and the ball was about a foot beyond the line.

There is one thing that was in the game and it left a little room for the supposition that the Cats had not taken the Groesbeck game with much seriousness, they fumbled frequently and their interference was poor. In fact they had very little interference at times. But with all due respect to Coach Poteet and his Fighting Black Cats we will say that they showed their superior football knowledge over their opponents. Not only was it shown in the knowledge of football but in a manner of sportsmanship. There were two men on the Groesbeck squad who were a little two anxious to "Get" a man that they resorted to using their fists. But on several occasions the Cats would take their medicine like sports.

But let's get down to some of the statistics of the game. The Cats showed their superiority in making 13 first down to the seven of the Groesbeck aggregation. They passed three times, completing one, having one intercepted and one was grounded; while the Goats passed 9 times, completing two, having one intercepted and six grounded. Karner punted four times for an average of 32 yards. Two of his kicks were carried out of bounds by the strong wind but the other two were good. Mills punted three times for Groesbeck for an average of 19 yards. Two of Mills punts were also carried out of bounds by the wind.

THE GAME.

First Quarter.

Groesbeck kicked 40 yards to Karner who returned it 20. The Goats line held and Karner punted 35 to Groesbeck with no return. Groesbeck plunged, passed and faked their way for their first down of the game. The Cats held them and the ball went to Mexia, Perkinson and Clover hit the line for the first down for the Cats. Buford fumbled and lost four. Signals got mixed up and lost about 10 more. The wind got under Karner's punt and carried it out of bounds the distance being about 12 yards. Groesbeck made another first down through the line another first down through right tackle and a pass. Mills went through tackle for 11 yards and a touchdown. They added the extra point on a pass. Groesbeck kicked 20 yards to Lucas who returned it 7 as the whistle for the first quarter blew.

Second Quarter

Perkinson made 14 and first down around left end. Thompson Lucas, Perkinson, and Buford rang up two first downs in quick succession on end runs but the Goat line held and the ball went over to Groesbeck. They punted 14 yards out of bounds. The Cats rang up three first downs in succession and Thompson plunged three yards for the Cats first counted. Karner drop kicked goal. Score Mexia 7 Groesbeck 7.

Thompson kicked over the Groesbeck goal and the ball was put in play on the 20 yard line. Groesbeck fumbled and Clover recovered for Mexia. A few plunges failed and then Karner failed to drop kick a field goal. Groesbeck ball on the 20 yard line. They made one first down and then Lucas blocked their punt but Groesbeck recovered. And the first half was over.

Third Quarter.

Groesbeck kicked 40 yards to Thompson who returned 15 yards. The Goats held the Cats and Karner punted 45 yards with about 10 yards return. The Goats were being penalized for roughness at this stage of the game and Mills punted 25 to Buford who returned it 7 yards. Lucas then ran for about 40 yards for a touchdown. Karner failed by inches to drop kick goal. Score Mexia 13, Groesbeck 7.

The Goats kicked to Perkinson who returned the kick 20 yards. The

RODY JORDAN WITH COBURN'S MINSTRELS OPERA HOUSE MONDAY NIGHT, NOV. 10TH

"Hank" White one of the principal funmakers of J. A. Coburn's Minstrels coming to the Opera House, tomorrow night has become known and appreciated as a top-notch minstrel for his droll and characteristic portrayals of black face comedy in various roles. Billed simply at "Just Plain White in Black" he has originated and produced many very clever and enjoyable singing dancing and comedy skits, afterpieces and acts. Quoting from leading critics "It's r/r, so much what he says or does as the way he does it" which stamps him as a real entertainer and funny man. Quiet and unobtrusive he has made hosts of friends and become a strong favorite on the seasons circuit. As Stage Manager for "Coke" his duties are manifold and the success of the performance rests largely on his personal efforts from the rise to fall of curtain. His productions in the new show this season are said to be exceptionally funny and enjoyable.

SPORTLIGHTS

By HECK

Wow, did you notice how close my dope on the Black Cat-Groesbeck game came near running true to form? Believe me, I sure felt uneasy for the Cats when Groesbeck reeled off a touchdown in about 8 minutes after the game started and I knew the Cats were overconfident and they proved it by staging a magnificent come-back and finally won 13 to 7 after showing some brilliant football.

The Cats likewise showed some bad football especially with their fumbling and it looked to me like it cost them two touchdowns and perhaps three. The Cat line also failed to hold the heavy charging Groesbeck backs and it cost a touchdown when Mills reeled off a cross buck and went through the line for many yards and Groesbeck's only counter.

Wayne Lucas got back in the game and the Cats can thank their lucky stars that he did for the Cat tackle was sure broke out with good football and his sixty yard run around right end for a touchdown won the game for the Cats. In this run Lucas showed just what he has meant to the Cats all season and his work will be greatly needed in the games that follow in order with Palestine, Corsicana, and Mart who are the Cats next victims.

The Cat ends seemed to have oodles of trouble in breaking up the Groesbeck end runs but Coach Poteet finally hit the right combination and in the last half the county seat crew were up against a brick wall and made but little headway on any kind of a play.

A high wind swept across the field and aerial play was out of the question and used but very few times by either team. Groesbeck depended more upon their fast charging backs to gain through the line while the Cats stayed with their end runs and fake formations to gain ground and in this respect used good judgment and but for fumbling when being tackled would have rolled up a very respectable score.

I want to compliment Groesbeck on the clean cut, fighting game they played and when I say "fighting game" I mean just that for they fought to the very last and are game to the core and were beaten by a team that took quick advantage of the breaks that came their way and a team that finally got down to

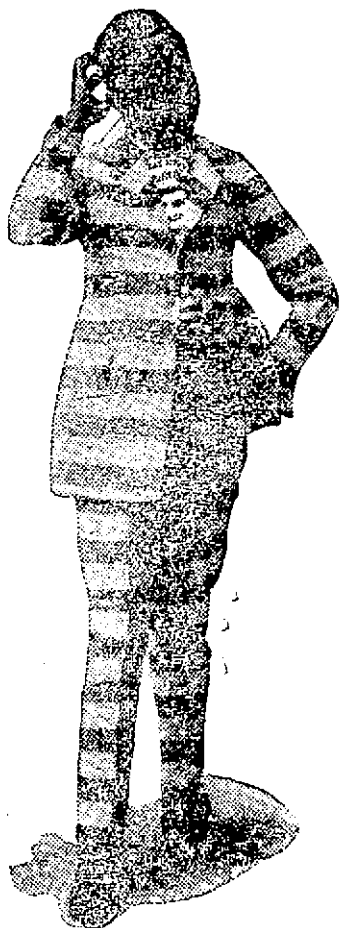

Cats reeled off four first downs in a hurry and Perkinson had made 20 through left tackle on Groesbeck 15 yard line when he was tackled and he fumbled the ball, Groesbeck recovering. They punted 14 yards and Mexia started down the field once more but lost the ball on another fumble. They made a first down and a pass failed as the end of the third quarter came.

Fourth Quarter.

The Goats opened an offensive drive that looked good for a counter, opening the last quarter with a 25 yard run between right tackle and right end. The Cats held them and the ball went over to Mexia. Lucas ripped off 17 yards at right end.

On the third play Groesbeck intercepted a pass, the Cats held and the ball went back over to Mexia. Karner punted 35 yards. Perkinson intercepted a pass. Perkinson made 2 at left end. Buford made 7 at right tackle. Thompson made 3 and first down and the final whistle was blown closing one of the most exciting games of the season for the Black Cats.

OF MEXIA HEAR COUNTY ROAD ISSUE EXPLAINED

Lion "Doc" Marion Brown, newly elected president of the Lions Club was the principal speaker at the Lion meeting Friday at noon, when he made his inaugural address with an elegant flow of oratory appealing to the members of the club for their support and expressing his appreciation for the honor bestowed upon him.

The meeting opened with a few songs by the members before being seated at the table. Mrs. L. H. Hastings, accompanied by Mrs. Allen Hatch at the piano, gave two very beautiful selections, which were much appreciated by all present. Following this came an introduction of the visitors, and new members who were attending their first meeting of the club. A delegation of Lions were present from Groesbeck as guests of the Mexia organization.

The Lions were indeed fortunate in having Rotarian John E. Aubrey of Denison to make a ten minute talk, after being introduced by his son, Lion Victor K. Aubrey, pastor of the Central Presbyterian Church of this city. Rotarian Aubrey talked on the needs of a Farm Demonstration agent for Limestone county, and proved that the progress of the country depended largely on the farmers. Dr. Aubrey is a very interesting speaker and impressed his audience very much with his appeal for the benefit of the farmers. J. F. Stewart was nominated by the Board of Directors as reporter for the club.

Following the address of Rotarian Aubrey, Carl Davis, manager of the New Way Laundry was called on for a brief talk and explained to his audience how the organization of which he is manager is a benefit to the public and gave a new light on the process of cleaning. A motion was put before the meeting for the changing of the day of meeting and upon being voted upon carried unanimously to change the day from Friday to Tuesday at 12:10 o'clock. The meeting was adjourned promptly on time but the members were asked to remain a few minutes to hear the message the Groesbeck Lions had to deliver to the Mexia business men. The visitors from the county seat were: Messrs. Scott Reed, J. M. Arendale, W. G. Bradley, J. B. Watson and P. M. Humble. J. M. Arendale was the spokesman for the delegation and presented to the Lions club the subject of floating $3,250,000 bond issue for good roads of the county. Mr. Arendale received loud applause at the conclusion of his speech and was informed that the Mexia Lions Club would present the proposition to the Chamber of Commerce which should rightfully be the proper authorities to give support to the movement.

Death Stood Guard Over Suspected House

(By United Press)
DALLAS, Nov. 8.—Death barred the way of two policemen armed with a search warrant here. When Charles Foraker and Grover Garrison approached a house suspected of being the hiding place for liquor, the place was crowded with people.

In the front room were watchers at the bedside of an aged woman, dying, according to physicians. The officers slipped away with their unused warrant.

SAVED FROM FIRE
BY BARKING DOG

(By United Press)
DALLAS, Nov. 8.—Alarmed by the frenzied barking of the family dog, Mrs. J. E. Thomas rushed out of the only exit of their home to find the building in flames. The house collapsed a few minutes after she had escaped from the building.

G. A. Walters urges all members of his class to be present Sunday morning, and specially invites all men not members of any other class to visit his class. The subject for discussion is extra interesting.

JUST A LINE.

By OWEN FRIEND WATKINS.

Oh how sweet are the smiles of a mother,
How her longings are turned into joy,
When the postman comes by with a letter
Simply wrote in the hand of her boy.
Ev'ry hour since he left the old fire-side
She has counseled her Saviour in prayer
To keep watch on her boy and protect him
From the pitfalls of shame and despair.
Just a line, at the end of his labors,
With his love to the old folks so dear,
How he likes his employer and neighbors,
Fills her heart with its gladness and cheer.
How she thrills as she reads ev'ry sentence
And thanks God thru her tears and her smiles
That He watches her boy in the distance
And protects him from treacherous wiles.

When the cold hand of Fate is against you
And the crowd passes by like the wind
There is one no grim fortune can falter
For your mother is always your friend.
When disease, or some crime casts its shadows,
On your life she's still loyal to you
And will stand by the grave or the gallows
And forgive and forget what you do.

Thoughtless man, in the world as you wander
From the loved ones around the old shrine,
When you think of her love and devotion
Can't you write your dear mother a line?
For some day when the last call is given
And she sleeps neath the sod at sweet rest
You will pray to your Father in

HELP MEXIA GROW!

If a man can write a better book, preach a better sermon, build a better mouse trap, run a better store or extend a broader smile, the world will make a beaten path to his door, though his house is built in the woods.

The progress written on all sides in Mexia, the marks of progress in this entire community, the footsteps of more people coming here to live or to visit indicates that the men of Mexia are doing things just a little better as the years go marching on.

A Chinaman was working at his trade as a laundryman in a mining camp in the far Northwest. While out delivering some bundles one snow bound morning, he saw a big grizzly bear coming towards him at a pretty gait, sniffing at his tracks. The Chinaman chuckled, with a shrinking heart, "Huh, you likee my tracks. I makee some more."

Now one of the things Mexia wants is more tracks leading to this city, made by the splendid citizenry of all surrounding communities.

O, there are some antiquated things about us. Some are good. Some are bad. The good, we hope we will cling to tenaciously. However, we hope that we won't be deluded like the new house girl spoken of in ancient literature who was asked by her new employer if she had changed the bed sheets. She replied, "No, they have not worn out yet."

Mexia's idea in having a Trades Shower was not altogether for the purpose of swelling cash registers for one day. The big idea was to win friends.

A young lady had been proposed to by a young fellow who had just lost a dear relative. Before she replied to his proposal, she interrogated him as follows: "Did he leave you anything?" "Yes," the young man said, whereupon the young sweet one answered, "Here's my hand." About that time the young man seemed to realize that he had made a double mistake, both in the proposal and in the incomplete sentence, so added, He gave me his blessing." Whereupon the horrified girl continued, "As I was saying, here's my hand-bag."

Mexia is like the young man. This city is seeking hands and not handbags.

However, any bringing their hand bags along when they come to Mexia will find that it pays to trade in Mexia and the events of Saturday demonstrated that to all who were here.

Those who came from points some distance away and who do not come here often doubtless, at least we hope, found Mexia folks with the same warm hearts and wonderful hospitality that they know exists in their own matchless communities.

The bullfrog lived in the valley. He had never been away from his home community. Other animals pointed him to the mountains in the distance and urged him to take a long trip and see the world. Finally, he decided to accept their invitation and so strolled off one crisp morning eager for the long journey. He hopped across the valley and up the mountain side, beyond which a view of the world stretched in one fine panorama. Now, you know a bull frog's eyes are squarely on top of his head. When the globe hopper reached the top of the peak, he reared up on his hind legs to get a good view of the world beyond. This threw his eyes back across the valley in which he always lived, instead of on the other side. The bullfrog dropped down to his feet in disgust and said, "I'm going back home, the whole world is just like it is back down in my valley."

Mexia wants the people of her trade territory to learn that this city is composed of the same high class, patriotic, home-loving citizenship as are to be found in their own hospitable home communities. If you expect to find us different, in this respect, disappointment is certain.

There's no danger now of a fellow losing his way when he starts out to come to Mexia. Many years ago, it might have been difficult for the newcomer to find Mexia. Old timers tell about a man who was coming to Mexia and in the night lost his way. He saw a guide post by the side of the road and had to climb it to read its admonition. Imagine his disgust when he got to the top, struck a match and read, "Wet paint."

We know that no one who came here Saturday had such an experience.

With politics were through, at least for a couple of years; they knock our thoughts askew and bore us most to tears. We'd rather speak of blackeyed peas and laud them to the skies, or pull a syncopeated wheeze about turnip greens and pies. A bean to the yellow yam, the pumpkin white with frost than boosting of a crippled clam by politician bossed. Full soon the festive spare-rib will grace our plate at noon and with our napkin for a bib we'll ply our fork and spoon. The sausage and the back-bone, the liver and the jowl—we'll let discordant things alone, these satisfy the soul. We're glad the fuss is over and Thanksgiving's on the way; the turkeys in the clover and hen eggs in the hay. There's custards in the making and several kinds of cake; there's gelatine gently shaking and a dozen things to bake. With politics we're through for a couple of years or more, they drive us most to tears and make our conscience sore.—Sam Miller in Mineral Wells Index.

Amen, amen, and then some more; amen, amen, and then some more.

Report has it that former Lieutenant Osborne Wood, who was reported to have made a fortune dabbling in stocks while stationed at Manila, has just dropped his last dime at Monte Carlo. Well, that was about what we expected. Anyway, the gentleman has experienced a double thrill—that of winning and losing.—Denison Herald.

Expert testimony. Ellis has been on both sides—several times—and knows what it is to win and what isn't to lose. But neither kills.

In the glorious realm of love there is no interruption of its beautiful processes by the frenzy of politics. The babies arrive on schedule time, and the marriage license clerk keeps steadily employed.—George Bailey in Houston Post-Dispatch.

And each one is necessary to the other, i. e., the babies and the m. l. clerk.

If anybody doubts that a lot of our Socialist and Independent friends are good Democrats now, all they have to do is ask if they voted the ticket from Ma down to constable. That is to be the test of a man's Democracy hereafter. It doesn't make any difference what he believes if he voted the ticket.—Bonham Favorite.

Nor what his color might be.

The power to thrill as a public speaker doesn't necessarily bring success in politics, but it goes a long way. The man or woman who can go before the people with a dominant personality and present their claims with a fine oratorical ability certainly gets much farther than the "common sense appeal," however good it may be.—Bryan Eagle.

If you can figure out just who had the "common sense appeal" and who pulled the "oratory" in the late "unpleasantness," then you might solve the "cross word" puzzle. In the national affair, it seems that the fellow who said nothing but just sawed wood got the big end of the votes.

How dear to our heart is the old silver dollar, when some kind subscriber presents it to view; the liberty head without necktie or collar, and all the strange things which to us seem so new. The wide-spreading eagle, the arrow below it, the stars and the words with the strange things they tell; the coin of our fathers, we are glad that we know it, for some time other 'twill come in right well, the spread-eagle dollar, the star spangled dollar, the old silver dollar we all love so well.—Exchange.

Our cynical old bachelor friend says that woman was the first loud speaker, the Sewing Circle the first broadcasting station and the local gossip the first amplifier.—Sam Miller in Mineral Wells Index.

How did a bachelor ever find out so much?

Utter Nonsense, We Call It

But a flea can't fly.
A sigh may be

An eye may see,
But a sea can't eye,
And you can't type, but you can't type pie!
—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

A bat my fly,
But a fly can't bat;
A pat my tie,
But a tie can't pat;
A stamp may stick,

Another Evil Of Bootleg Liquor

DALLAS, Nov. 7.—Everything probably would have been fine for the girl if the boy had kept still. But he talked.

The couple were arraigned before Judge P. D. Crawford charged with spooning in the city park. The boy drew a ten dollar fine without comment and the judge hesitated.

The girl was tearful and pretty. Then her escort spilled the well known naves.

"Liquor always has that effect upon her," he asserted. "Every time she gets a drink or two she starts crying and cries until she sobers up." The testimony was confirmed by Judge Crawford from other sources and the maid also drew a ticket for $10.

HOW LONG CAN YOU CONCENTRATE MIND?

(By International News Service.)
CHICAGO, Nov. 7.—How long can you concentrate? Three minutes is an extremely long period for the average person to hold attention fixed on one thing, according to A. G. Gulbransen, piano manufacturer, in an address at an educational conference here.

"Try to direct your mind to one line of thought and see how long you can hold to it," said Mr. Gulbransen. "Take your watch in your hand and time yourself. Fix your mind on one object, or one problem, and then time yourself how long you can concentrate your attention

When the whole world is talking and thinking building, and so many people are homeless with rents exceeding the amount of money exacted to meet payments on a home is the time you should arrange to build and start enjoying contentment and protection in a home of your own.

Plans No. 1633 and 1634

This charming little home plan is worthy all the consideration you may care to give it. The exterior is most attractive, the terrace porch with its pergola beams and colonial posts, cement steps, and floor adds attractiveness and with the walls painted white and roof moss green with added color in the shrubbery and roses, you have a most practical and pleasing combination. The alternate floor plans—study them carefully—for here is where you will appreciate the careful attention that has been given that maximum of room and conveniences may be had at minimum cost.

NOW that the road to home ownership is open and you are in a receptive mood to consider seriously the advantages to be gained by yourself and every member of your family through home ownership, is the time to select plans and build.

It isn't necessary that you have all the money ready to pay cash for homes—a small payment down and balance in monthly installments is the plan under which the majority of present day home owners acquired homes. Your monthly payments will not exceed the amount of money you are now paying out for rent, so there is no good reason why you should not begin applying rent money towards buying a home of your own.

Determination is the world's greatest stimulus for home ownership and when this is applied in connection with thoughts of the future and desires for those most near and dear to you, together with the fact that choice home sites are rapidly being purchased by home makers on which to build permanent homes it makes additional reasons why you should accept this recommendation and start up the road that leads straight ahead to home ownership, pride, self respect, contentment, and be relieved from future burdens of paying rent.

You may have to make sacrifices to acquire a home; but the making of one sacrifice to attain your goal will inspire you to make another, each forming a stepping stone to independence, and once let a man become fired with progressive ambitions, nothing can stop his progress.

THE FOLLOWING ORGANIZATIONS, PUBLIC-SPIRITED FIRMS AND INDIVIDUALS ARE INTERESTED IN HELPING TO MAKE MEXIA A CITY OF MORE BEAUTIFUL HOMES AND TO ASSIST IN EVERY POSSIBLE WAY IN CREATING HOMES FOR THOSE WHO ARE DESIROUS OF MAKING MEXIA THEIR FUTURE HOME, AND IT IS THEIR RECOMMENDATION THAT ALL WHO CAN POSSIBLY DO SO BUILD HOMES OR CONVERT THEIR SURPLUS MONEY INTO HOME BUILDING CHANNELS. THAT YOU MAY TAKE FULL ADVANTAGE OF THE INFORMATION THESE PAGES CONTAIN, THEY HAVE RETAINED THE SERVICES OF COMPETENT HOME DESIGNERS TO PREPARE A COLLECTION OF MODEL HOMES WHICH HAS BEEN PUBLISHED IN BOOKLET FORM. Thanksgiving Is To Be Big Event At Texas Varsity

AUSTIN, Texas, Nov. 8.—Elaborate plans for a reunion of the ex-students of the University of Texas at Thanksgiving are rapidly going forward, according to T. H. Shelby, chairman of the committee on entertainment. For the first time ex-student rates have been obtained for Wednesday before Thanksgiving, as well as for Thursday, through the efforts of W. E. Long of the Austin Chamber of Commerce.

Members of the faculty have been asked to remain in their offices the Wednesday before Thanksgiving from nine until one except when meeting classes, so that ex-students may have an opportunity of meeting their old professors.

The Stadium will be open for inspection the entire day. Visitors may be able to locate their seats and see the work that has been done. At three in the afternoon there will be the dedication of the flag pole given by the citizens of Fredericksburg in memory of Louis Jordan, one of the greatest all-around athletes of the University of Texas, who was killed in the World War.

On Wednesday evening at 6 o'clock, a dinner will be given at Brackenridge Hall for all ex-students who formerly resided there. Senator Morris Shepherd will deliver the main address. A band concert and rally will be held in front of the Main Building at 7:30 o'clock. This will be followed by a reception given by President W. M. W. Spawna and the members of the University faculty in the Girls' Study Hall. There will also probably be an All-University dance that night in the Woman's Gymnasium.

On Thursday morning, the faculty will again remain in their offices from 10 to 12 o'clock to receive visitors. All University buildings and the Stadium will be open for inspection.

Cadets of A. & M. College will stage a parade in full equipment from the depot up Congress Avenue to the capitol, as soon as they arrive. They are expected at eleven o'clock. At the capitol the boys will be served sandwiches and coffee by the Austin Chamber of Commerce and the Austin A. & M. Club. Citizens of Austin have been asked to show the visitors over the city and also see that a way is provided for all to get to the Stadium, where the annual football game between A. & M. College and the University of Texas will be played at three o'clock.

After the game a smoker and reception will be given for the A. & M. faculty at the University Club.

The A. & M. headquarters will be at the Driskill Hotel, while the Texas-Exes will meet at the Stephen F. Austin Hotel. Baggage can be checked at both hotels, at the Y. M. C. A., and at the Chamber of Commerce, it is announced.

Austin is expected to have from 30,000 to 35,000 visitors, an estimated increase of from 10,000 to 15,000 more than the city has ever had before.

In case the two hotels will not be able to accommodate the crowds, the Austin Chamber of Commerce has listed 1,000 homes that are willing to house visitors.

A PARTNER OF SUNLIGHT

Cod-liver oil has aptly been called the partner of sunlight. Both out of Nature's storehouse of energy are of supreme importance to a child with rickets.

Scott's Emulsion

and sunlight have been used for decades to give strength to weak-bones. A little of Scott's Emulsion with each feeding does wonders for a malnourished child or adult.

Keep your boy or girl out in the sunlight and give them Scott's Emulsion everyday—regularly!

LADIES FRIDAY CLUB.

The Ladies Friday Club was called to order on Nov. 7 by the President. After the transaction of business matters roll call was answered by quotations from Woodrow Wilson.

A delightful musical number was rendered by Mrs. Oscar Denning and Mrs. Ira Needham.

Mrs. A. H. Berry, who was in charge of the program, had as her subject the important question "Training for Citizenship—The Home." As an introduction she quoted a clipping from one of our local business men, which is as follows:

"The home is the nucleus around which the entire fabric of our civilization must stand or fall. Destroy the fireside and nothing remains but confusion and chaos. Our boys and girls of today, God bless them, are to be the men and women of tomorrow and on their shoulders must fall the responsibility that is now ours. Let's make them strong physically, alert mentally, and impregnable morally."

Mrs. Berry discussed "Education The Defense of the American Home." Home is the source of American ideals, it is the workshop in which each member of the family should bear his or her part of the burden. In the home one should receive training in loyalty and unselfishness.

In a most impressive manner Mrs. T. D. Chatham gave "Home the Big Thing."

"Some of the things needed to form a family circle" was told by Mrs. Allen Hatch in which she stressed the influence of good music in the home.

Mrs. Vickers discussed "Religion in the Home," stating that a religious atmosphere is the need of every child. Mrs. John Sanders recalled "Memories of the Home." Then Mrs. Berry concluded with a most impressive poem entitled "Houses and Homes."

As Nov. 11 is Armistice Day the leader inserted a short program on Peace, reading an article "Because I am an American." Mrs. W. M. White gave an interesting paper on "World Peace." The program ended with an urgent appeal "Kill War" written by Anatole France a short time before his death. Then followed a peace prayer by Mrs. Weaver Barnett.

Woman Policeman In Port Arthur Will Clean Town

(By United Press)
PORT ARTHUR, Nov. 8.—"Flirt-ver-flirters" must find a berth outside Port Arthur. That is the edict of Mrs. M. M. Stokes, the city's first woman copper.

"Mashing," "spooning," "goo-goo eyeing," and "shleking," as well as "shebaing" are doomed to go in the port city. They are the favorite dishes of this new "policeman."

Flirting with school girls by young and old men was becoming a menace and had to be stopped, therefore Mrs. Stokes was given a badge and told to start a housecleaning.

Aged Negro Fair Employee Is Dead

(By United Press)
DALLAS, Nov. 8.—Dave Smith, 62, negro and veteran employee at the State Fair grounds, passed out on the heels of the 38th annual state fair of Texas. "Old Dave" as he was known to hundreds of fair visitors and officials, died here Wednesday night.

Dave started his career with the state fair of Texas, in 1886 at the opening exposition. At that time he was a personal servant of Captain Sydney Smith, then secretary of the fair.

"Dave" was an honest, conscientious, good old southern negro and was regarded as a permanent fixture around the fair grounds," W. H. Stratton, secretary said.

REPORTER.

MEXIA WINS OVER CRIPPLED LIONS

(Teague Chronicle)

The Teague Lions, with Fullback Yarbrough, Halfback Colgin and Quarterback Tomme all on the injured list but trying to play, suffered a 31 to 0 defeat at the hands of the stronger Mexia team on the local gridiron last Friday.

The Lions held the Black Cats to a 7 to 0 score during the first half, turning them back by inches several times, but the battering line and running attack of the visitors soon told on the crippled Teague boys, and this along with a couple of bad breaks enabled the Cats to put across two touchdowns in each of the third and fourth periods. Late in the third quarter Bass, Lion right end, and Moore right tackle, were both taken out on account of injuries, greatly weakening the scrimmage and they weaved their way through the crippled backfield.

Mexia had several stars, but the writer did not know their names and consequently is unable to give them. For Teague, the defensive work of Captain Davis at tackle and Bass at end deserve special mention. These two men are towers on the defense, and have not met their equal all season.

J. Meers, geologist of this section who long ago pronounced that a big field was due to be discovered in Northeast Mexia, is much gratified over the outlook as his predictions seem to be about to come true. The leaving of the chalk at 2564 in the Boyd Simmons has been accepted as a very favorable indication.
